TALKING FOR A CANAL.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The consideration of the River and Harbor bill in the House yesterday gave to the friends and opponents of the Hennepin Canal their long desired opportunity to be heard on the subject. Mr. Jones, of Wisconsin, led off with a sharp speech in opposition. Mr. Henderson, of Illinois, and Mr. Blanchard, of Louisiana, followed in brief speeches in its favor. Then Mr. Potter, of New York, opposed it, to be followed again in turn by two other friends of the measure, Messrs. Stone, of Massachusetts, and Murphy, of Iowa. The latter spoke for thirty minutes, when, by unanimous consent, he was allowed fifteen minutes further. It was his first speech in Congress and the longest speech of the day. There was considerable curiosity to hear him, and his remarks received a degree of attention that is seldom accorded a new member. Murphy is thoroughly saturated with the Hennepin Canal idea. He has talked of nothing else, thought of nothing else, and subordinated everything to the one object in view, that of securing an appropriation of $300,000 for its construction. He has personally seen and labored with every member of the House on the subject, and if it succeeds in passing it will be more largely due to his activity than to any other cause. Of course he could not do this without tiring the patience of nervous and crochety members, but he has been so earnest, so conscientious, so zealous about it that people forgot they were being bored, and remembered only his sincerity and good nature. His speech, which was read from manuscript, gave every indication of careful preparation. It was a very exhaustive effort, and dealt largely with details. He showed that commercial and legislative bodies in convention assembled since 1845 had advocated the construction of a ship canal connecting the Atlantic Ocean with the Mississippi River and lakes. In that year John C. Calhoun, presiding over a convention of 535 representatives from the Southern and Western States, gave to this canal his cordial support. Even the President of the United States within the present year had recommended it in a special message to Congress. Passing to the question of transportation, he dwelt at length on the cheapness of transportation. The speech bristled with statistics and facts to support his argument, and at its close he was warmly applauded, quite a number of members coming forward to shake him by the hand.

THE DANVILLE RIOTS.

The minority report of the Senate Committee on the Danville riots says that decent respect for the opinions of mankind should have impelled the Republicans to conduct the investigation with fairness, and to have set forth its results with judicial impartiality. While the Senator from Ohio was investigating the riot in Danville, and holding up his hands in horror at the shooting of four negroes, the report says bloodshed, murder and arson were running riot in his own city, —Cincinnati. More than fifty persons were killed, twice that number wounded, and $1,000,000 worth of property destroyed. The minority ask how it would be if committees were appointed to investigate the "killing of negroes in Ohio for the sale of their carcasses to medical colleges," and "to report upon the state of trade in that branch of American industry, and whether it is likely to interfere with the pork-packing business of the city of Cincinnati." The report charges the majority with making a partisan threat of depriving the people of Mississippi of representation in case they do not vote for the Republican candidates, and of shifting the expense of printing the campaign document from the pockets of the Republican National Committee onto the public Treasury.

THE CHARGES AGAINST SWAIM.

It is said that Secretary Lincoln will today make public the findings of the Court of Inquiry into the charges against Judge-Advocate General Swaim, and his recommendations on the subject to the President. This will be immediately followed by charges preferred by a prominent army officer of a misappropriation of the funds derived from the Garfield fair. It is alleged that $1,000 of this sum has never been accounted for by General Swaim, who was the Treasurer of the Association. The books have recently received a careful overhauling, and the result has been to place General Swaim in an awkward position, from which his enemies say it will be difficult for him to extricate himself.

THE OREGON SENATORSHIP.

Congressman George, of Oregon, is a good deal talked of here just now as the prospective Senator from that State. The latest reports from Oregon indicate that the Legislature has been carried for the Republicans, and that Senator Slater, the Democratic member of the Senate from that State, will have to go. An Oregonian facetiously talking of the result of the election remarked that Senator Slater was now preparing to resume the practice of law; Mr. George, who is now in his second term in Congress, declined a renomination, although he had carried the State in the last election by an almost unprecedentedly large majority. He could undoubtedly have had the renomination had he so desired. It is quite probable, now that a Republican Legislature is elected, that it will choose Mr. George to fill the Senatorial position. The series of which was opened in Oregon includes not less than nine States. Alabama votes on August 4 for Governor and State officers; Tennessee follows on August 7; Arkansas, on September 1, and Vermont one day later. Then comes the more significant election in Maine, on September 8, with the interesting incidental vote on constitutional prohibition of liquor traffic. Georgia will elect a Governor on October 1. On October 14 the Ohio and West Virginia elections occur, the political interest of the series culminating in Ohio, where twenty-one Congressmen will be chosen, and the minor State offices hotly contested in the traditional belief that the result may potently influence party fortunes in the Presidential elections three weeks later.

FIELD AND PALMER.

The popularity of Mr. Blaine on the Pacific Coast is bringing into prominence Chief-Justice Field, of California, as the only Democrat who can be safely relied upon to capture the electoral vote of the three Pacific States. General Logan's influence with the soldier element suggests the necessity of a Vice-Presidential nominee with a good army record. General Palmer, of Illinois, is now being spoken of in this connection. "Such a ticket," said a well-known Congressman, "would give great satisfaction to the Democrats of the country. It is the only combination that could wrest from the Republicans the sixteen Electoral votes west of the Rocky Mountains. In New York, New Jersey and Connecticut it would be fully the equal in strength of any ticket that could be named."

IN THE HOUSE.

Mr. Dingley introduced in the House a bill to amend the act coercing National banking associations.

The bill provides that in all suits at law or in equity to inforce the liability of shareholders or contracts and debts and engagements of the associations to the amount of their stock thereon, at its par value, in accordance with the revised statutes, the stockholders shall have the right to set up in defense the equitable discharge of the liability by the voluntary payment made before the assessment is levied upon the stock by the Comptroller of the Currency to inforce the liability.

Mr. Taft introduced a bill to repeal the internal revenue taxes on tobacco. The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the River and Harbor bill. After listening to a lengthy discussion on the subject, the committee arose without action. The Speaker appointed Messrs. Ferrin, O'Neill (Mo.) and James conferees on the bill to establish a Bureau of Labor Statistics. At the evening session numerous amendments increasing the appropriations under the River and Harbor bill were proposed and voted down.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The Senate, insisting on its amendments to the Labor Statistics bill, yesterday ordered a Committee of Conference, and the chair appointed Senators Aldrich, Blair and Bayard. The Mexican Soldiers' Pension bill was then taken up. Senator Bobleberger's amendment to strike out the phrase "For the suppression of the rebellion" from Hoar's amendment providing pensions for soldiers who fought in the late war was laid on the table. Senator Williams moved to lay Senator Hoar's amendment on the table. The motion was carried—25 to 15.

EDUCATIONAL.

Preparations for the Annual Meeting of the National Education Association at Madison, Wis.

MADISON, Wis., June 10.—An important meeting of the committees of the National Education Association, which convenes here from July 10 to 18, were held at the Capitol yesterday. Hon. Thomas A. Bicknell President, Governor J. L. Rusk, ex-Governor Lucius Fairchild, General Atwood, General Bryant, Hon. Robert Graham, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Hon. Edward Carrigan, of the State Board of Education of Massachusetts, Judge J. H. Carpenter, of the Wisconsin State University, Elisha Barnick, S. L. Sheldon and others being present. Reports of the Committee of Arrangements show that the city can accommodate some five thousand people, one-half that number of teachers having already registered. The entertainment is limited to members of the Association and those who may become members at Madison. Your committee in their report show that early registration for accommodation is [illegible] J. H. Carpenter of E. C. Corrigan, of Boston, was appointed General Manager. An invitation to attend the meeting was extended to ex-Secretary Blaine, General B. F. Butler and Senator H. W. Blair.

A congratulatory telegram from President Bicknell was sent to Hon. J. G. Blaine in behalf of the association, relative to general education and Federal aid to common schools.

CHICAGO, June 10.—E. C. Carrigan, of Boston, a member of the Massachusetts State Board of Education, arrived at the Sherman House last night. He is on his way home from Madison, Wis., where he has been aiding in making arrangements for the meeting of the National Educational Association, which begins July 10 and closes on the 18th. Mr. Carrigan said last night that this would be one of the greatest gatherings of educators that has ever assembled. Not less that 5,000 people are expected. The early days of the session will be devoted to the work of the National Council of Education, which will discuss all questions relative to the supervision and government of schools. The National Association proper will meet July 14. Among the subjects to be discussed are education in the Northwest, education in the South, which will include the question of federal aid and other problems of interest to the educators of America. Most of the leading instructors in the United States are expected to be present.

AN OLD FEUD SETTLED.

Sheriff Readmon, of Florence, Wis., Mortally Wounded by District-Attorney McIntosh.

FLORENCE, Wis., June 10.—Yesterday afternoon about five o'clock Sheriff James E. Readmon and District-Attorney C. E. McIntosh, of Florence County, exchanged shots at close quarters in the public streets. Both men were armed with thirty-eight caliber revolvers, and the Sheriff was wounded twice. McIntosh escaped unhurt. One ball pierced Readmon's body in the region of the right lung, inflicting a fatal wound. The other ball entered his left hand and came out at the elbow. McIntosh was arrested while endeavoring to escape to Commonwealth. Popular indignation runs high and threats are being made. Eye-witnesses differ as to who fired first. The affair is the outcome of an old feud.

Hall's Heavy Shortage.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 10.—Ex-United States Marshal John Hall was arrested yesterday afternoon at his home in Washington, Pa., on the charge of making false returns to the Government. Examiner Bain, of the Department of Justice, who made the information, alleges that during Hall's term of office the total amount returns by Hall was $33,202, while the receipts of his office were $186,961. Hall's friends claim that a thorough investigation will discharge him of all blame.

Attorney Campbell's Trial Commenced.

CINCINNATI, O., June 10.—The trial of T. C. Campbell, the attorney who defended William Berner, whose conviction for manslaughter was the inciting cause of the riots, began yesterday. He is charged with attempting to bribe Michael Gaglas a juror. The Bar Association presented information against Campbell, which is be argued Saturday. The nature of the information has not been made known.

Roughing It on the Lakes.

CHICAGO, June 10.—The propeller Calfornia, from Chicago to Mocal with a cargo of corn, went ashore yesterday near Sand Beach, Michigan. The life-saving crew took off the passengers and crew. The schooner Greenback capsized in Saginaw Bay, and her crew were seen clinging to the keel. The scow Annapes on the reef near Sheboygan.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed nights after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 61 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me.
HORACE FAIRBROTHER."
Rockingham, Vt., July 25, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."
159 West 126th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE."
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."
Rybalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRAGDON."
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

THE saloon men have no more use for Lake.

CARL SCHURZ will not support Blaine and Logan.

IT is said that Harper's Weekly will oppose Blaine editorially and cartoonally.

THE company of Mulligan Guards about to be organized here have not yet decided on the style of uniform.

LOUIS C. HOCK, a prominent German republican, of Chicago, openly declares that he cannot support Blaine.

J. S. SARGENT, of Macon, will support the democratic ticket this fall. The democracy are to be congratulated on the accession of this gentleman to their ranks.

THE action of the republican council in issuing licenses on Friday night and revoking them last night eads Snooks to say that the council is like Heisler's wife: "Mein Gott, sie ist von hell-of-a-set."

THE Republican was outspoken against the action of Mr. Lake on Monday, but evidently ate an overlose of white clover yesterday. Too much of this will make even an old wheel horse "slobber."

IN speaking of the zig zag conduct of the mayor and city council on the license question, Jim Hollinger says it reminds him of the old saying, that "A nigger is mighty 'onsartin,' but a white man is a d——d sight more so."

THE feeling of the temperance people of this county over the election of Lake in stealing a prohibition victory from their grasp, will give some idea of the feelings of the democrats of the country in 1876 over the stealing of the presidency from Mr. Tilden by their leader.

SUPERSTICIOUS republicans regret that Blaine was nominated on Friday, and their faith in success is greatly weakened in consequence. Why bless their silly souls our Uncle Sammy Tilden would beat him out of sight even though he had

THE New York Post, one of the staunchest republican papers of the country says: "That Blaine cannot be elected we look upon as certain. The extent of his defeat will depend upon the action of the democrats. They have now an opportunity offered such as has not presented itself for a quarter of a century."

THE Macon (Ga.) Telegraph makes the suggestion that while the New York Times and other northern journals are discussing southern civilization, they should observe that "Mr. Jefferson Davis has never posed as a heroic decoy duck of a gambling bank concern, or been compelled to write himself down an ass to prevent the world from writing him down a knave."

THE fact is worthy of note that of all the great dailies published in the metropolis of the Union, the New York Tribune alone supports Blaine and Logan, and its columns aforetime have teemed with articles branding both of them as unworthy of public trust or popular respect. We believe this is the first time a Republican ticket has been nominated to be opposed by all the New York morning papers, but one.

THE New York Herald refuses to support Blaine, and advocates the nomination of Tilden. It says: "He is far more popular now than he was four years ago. It is notable how the sense of justice lives and grows in the popular heart. The fraud of 1876 is more strongly resented now than in 1880. Not only would Tilden secure all the democratic votes, but a large number of republicans would see in him a conservative statesmanlike leader, for whom they can safely vote. His name will represent an opening but still a conservative future, progress to new ideas and new politics, and a healthful advance for the country."

THE action of the council last night in revoking the licenses issued on Friday night was as great a surprise as the issuance of the licenses. The vote stood five to five, the casting vote being given by the mayor. Alderman Lake voted as on Friday night. This action of the mayor shows that he has reconsidered his late action of his own accord.

We learn that he now says that he believes that the action on Friday night was secured by an unholy and probably corrupt combination; that he then was innocent of any knowledge of the same, and last night was not only willing, but anxious, to revoke the action of Friday night on the question. The mayor had been severely criticised for apparently supporting the action of Alderman Lake, but now by his action declares his innocence of any knowledge of the combination.

THE indignation of the people over the action of Alderman Lake has not in any way subsided. He has been compelled by public sentiment to withdraw from the ticket as a candidate for member of the board of equalization; a petition has been numerously signed asking him to resign his seat in the council; a citizen's mass meeting has been called for to-night at the tabernacle, couched in language pretty strong. The call for the meeting invites citizens of all classes and opinions who are opposed to official debauchery, bribery and corruption to attend, and refers to Mr. Lake in terms not complimentary. The feeling in the country is very strong, prominent republicans declaring that in certain townships Mr. Lake could not have received five votes, had he remained on the ticket. The excitement is not confined to anti-license men alone, license men being as outspoken as any. The meeting to-night will be largely attended, and some pretty strong language may be expected.

THE Republican compliments Mr. Lake very highly on his withdrawal from the ticket as a candidate for member of the board of equalization, saying: "His card indicates his loyalty to the republican party, which he has no desire to embarrass by any considerations personal to himself. The simple truth is, he recognizes the fact that his further candidacy might affect the ticket unfavorably, owing to the excitement now prevailing, and like the good republican that he is, bows gracefully to the wishes of those who have for so long been his political and personal friends. In this he acted wisely, and with a discretion that will commend him to his best friends."

We like this! One day the republican demands his withdrawal because of his action in the council which street talk calls traitorous; the next complimenting him for his withdrawal, speaking of him as "the good republican that he is bows gracefully to the wishes of those who have so long been his political and personal friends." What constitutes a good republican? Is it the position of the street talk? Can it be that in face of the mass meeting to be held to-night, the Republican whitewashes the object of its condemnation, and gives him a character as "a good republican." But Mr. Lake has only carried out the will of the republican bosses. They promised to take care of the whisky men, for support in 1882, and Mr. Lake was compelled to sacrifice himself on the altar of his party. We do not say that there were not other considerations which may have caused him to yield to the caresses of the political Delilah, but we do say that the party has demanded a victim, and Mr. Lake is "the lamb."

Last evening Captain Hewes arrested two coal miners named Wm. Moran and John Gilmore. It seems that they had some difficulty and determined to settle in prize-fighter style. They went to a secluded spot and after stripping to the waist, went for each other vigorously. The matter will be given an airing in the police court to day.

O. Williamson, a highly respected farmer residing near Auburn, Sangamon county, was struck by lightning and instantly killed on Saturday evening, while plowing in his field. The Jacksonville Courier says that a handsome young man is authority for the statement that a certain young doctor in that city "squeezed his girl so hard that one of her ribs was fractured. And he did it on purpose, so that he might get a fee from her father for setting the broken bone. There was no chance for another doctor to get ahead of him, for he was there when the accident occurred."

The Board of Education of the city of Decatur met last evening, and after the transaction of some routine and deferred business, and passing upon sundry bills, proceeded to canvass the vote cast last Tuesday for member of the board. Mr. John K. Warren was declared duly elected, and soon afterward appeared, filed his official oath, and took his seat as a member. The board was organized for the ensuing year by the election of Dr. Barnes as president and E. A. Gastman, clerk. The election of teachers for the ensuing school year was postponed, for the present, but a meeting for that purpose will likely be held in a few days.

A TEMPESTUOUS LAKE.

Its Wild Waves Wash About the Head of An Inoffensive Prohibitionists.

The pale air in the vicinity of the court house was streaked with gore yesterday morning, and the natives in the vicinity thrown into a wild state of excitement by an encounter between James C. Lake alderman from the first ward and Amos W. Conklin, a well known and respected citizen. As is already known Mr. Lake has been the target of many uncomplimentary remarks of late, in lieu of his action in the council in regard to the license question, which have been aimed at him by prohibition and license people alike. but in this case it seems that Mr. Conklin was guilty of no unkind talk, The little remark that ruffled the bosom of the complacent, Lake, issued from the mouth of Mr. Conklin's estimable wife, who evidently had no intention of disrespect or harm. It appears that Mrs. Conklin, on Saturday last made a remark to the effect that if Mrs. Lake knew the feeling of the people she would not ride about town in a nickel plated carriage.

Yesterday morning when Alderman Lake saw Mr. Conklin walking peacefully down Water street, he called to him, and, upon his not stopping, he hurried and overtook him, to find out the truth of the remark made on Saturday by Mrs. Conklin. A few angry remarks passed between the two when Alderman Lake evidently forgetting his position and the fact that he was a sworn officer to keep the peace, dealt Mr. Conklin three heavy blows about the head. He then walked across the street and was followed a short distance by the man he had assaulted. Captain Hartley placed both under arrest and a short time afterward Lake pleaded guilty before Squire Lowry and was fined three dollars and costs for the offense he had committed. Mr. Conklin was discharged by Squire McGorray.

The affair was discussed yesterday in the saloons and on the streets, and the names of the participants were handled in a very indelicate manner.

There will be a mass meeting of the citizens of Decatur and Macon county, at the tabernacle at 7:30 o'clock sharp, Wednesday night. All citizens who condemn the action of the city council in granting license to saloons, contrary to the expressed will of the people at the polls, are invited to be present and participate. Five minutes' speeches will be made by a number of prominent citizens. 2t

A Card

I am satisfied that my action in the city council last Friday evening in voting for the issuance of licenses to sell intoxicating liquors has created much dissatisfaction among Republicans. I have always been willing to do what lay in my power for the party to which I belong, and I now beg to announce that not to embarrass the Republican ticket in the prosecution of the campaign, I have sent in my withdrawal as a candidate for member of the state board of equalization. JAMES C. LAKE.

Spelling School.

Everybody is invited to meet at the tabernacle on Thursday, June 11th, at 8 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of having an old-fashioned spelling school. The old time experts will not need a second invitation. What will be offered, if any, and also the details of the arrangements will be announced in due time.

At a Called Testing Last Evening All Licenses are Revoked.

Yesterday afternoon, Mayor Chambers issued notices to the various aldermen for a called meeting, which was held last evening. All the aldermen were present, but before they settled down to business there was a great deal of talking among themselves, as if they were making preparations to meet some weighty question. Council meetings of late have been very interesting to parties who previously paid very little attention to municipal affairs, and the lobby last evening, was as usual full of spectators, who displayed much anxiety in regard to what business the council would transact. They found out to their entire satisfaction before an adjournment was reached.

The annual appropriation bill, make the following appropriations was adopted under the suspension of the rules: Interest on bonds, $5,600; sinking fund for 1881, $3,500; sinking fund for 1883, $1,500; for partial payment of the new water main, $12,000; for the balance due on water main purchased of Dennis, Long & Co., of Louisville, Ky., to be paid out of money derived from tax levy of 1884, $6,500; for payment of new pumping engine, purchased of E. P. Allis & Co., of Milwaukee, to be paid out of money now in the treasury, $10,000: for balance due on the new pumping engine to be paid out of money derived from the tax levy of 1884, $5,000; for public improvements $10,000; for streets and alleys, $8,000; for sidewalks and crossings, $8,000; for police department, $7,500; for fire department, $10,000; for health department, $500; for law department, $1,000; for water works $8,000; for salaries of city officers, $4,500; for library and reading rooms, $2,000; for lighting the city $4,000; miscellaneous expenses, $5,000.

The saloon bonds and applications of P. W. Finn, O. W. Kincaid, Wm. K. Carroll, Andrew Rothfuss, and N. Laux were all rejected, the vote standing as follows: aye, Gogerty, Shoemaker, Oakes and Diehl; nay, Roberts, Starr, Alexander, Wayne, Lake and Muzzy.

Alderman Wayne then introduced a resolution to the effect that all licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors, granted on June 6th, 1882, be hereby revoked and that the money paid into the treasury be refunded to each applicant, respectively. The vote on the adoption of the resolution stood as follows: aye, Roberts, Starr, Alexander, Wayne and Muzzy; nay, Gogerty, Shoemaker, Oakes, Diehl and Lake. The vote being a tie, Mayor Chambers voted in the affirmative and declared the resolution adopted.

Alderman Roberts introduced a resolution to the effect that an ordinance be drawn prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors in this city. It was laid on the table.

Alderman Shoemaker introduced a resolution to the effect that a tile across Orchard street, east of the railroad, be lowered. Adopted.

The street and alley committee recommended the lowering of the tile on North Water street, which leads to the Waggoner ditch. The report was adopted.

The ordinance committee recommended the adoption of the ordinance fixing the salaries of city officers. It was adopted, and the ordinance passed. It so placed the street superintendent's salary at $83.33 per month.

Alderman Roberts introduced a resolution that owners of property on East Eldorado street be allowed to drain into the street tile free of charge. Referred to the street and alley committee.

Alderman Wayne introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That an order be drawn in favor of the city clerk for the amount paid into the treasury by all the applicants procuring licenses for selling intoxicating liquors on June 6, 1884, and that the city clerk tender the amount paid by each of said applicants to such applicants.

Alderman Lake stated that he did not believe in paying the money back without retaining the proper amount for the time the saloon keepers had been selling.

The resolution was adopted as introduced.

Alderman Muzzy introduced a resolution that the city superintendent of streets be instructed to repair the culvert in the rear of the property of Mr. Piatt on West North street. Adopted.

The same gentleman introduced a resolution that a sewer pipe of proper dimensions be put in the west side of North Union street, opposite the residence of Frank Roach. Referred to the street and alley committee.

A communication from Civil Engineer Williams, of Chicago, was received stating that he would district the city for sewers for the sum of $1600, the surveying to be done by a local engineer under his supervision. His proposition was accepted by the council.

On motion the council adjourned.

FOR AND AGAINST BLAINE.

The California Delegates Visit the Republican Nominee at Home—He Makes a Brief Speech.

A VISIT TO BLAINE.

AUGUSTA, Me., June 10.—The Blaine train left Portland yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, and no stops were made until Brunswick was reached, where there were four cars from Lewiston and Auburn, decorated with the Blaine insignia, and three more from Rockland and other cities, all filled with delegates to join the train. A great train with a band of music greeted the California and the Maine delegates. The Brownsville students were conspicuous in their enthusiasm. Senator McClure, of California, made a ringing speech, after which Congressman Boutelle made a speech, which was cut short by the starting of the train at 4:20 p. m. for Augusta. At Gardiner artillery welcomed the train, but a stop of only two minutes was made. All along the route the flying train was greeted with cheers and the waving of handkerchiefs, particularly along the Kennebec River. At 5:40 p. m. the long train, composed of thirteen cars, rolled into Augusta, where bands were playing, whistles blowing, bells ringing, artillery firing, and crowds assembled to meet it. A procession, with music and banners, was formed to escort the visitors.

Ex-Governor Connor addressed the California delegation in words of welcome, which were responded to by Senator McClure, of California, who closed, amid great cheering, by saying: "You need not be worried about us; we will take care of our side of the continent." Ex-Senator Hamlin said: "You have done wisely and well: we will sweep this country like a vast prairie on fire." Judge Knight, of California, paid a tribute to the venerable ex-Vice-President.

The enthusiasm of the crowd at the depot was interrupted by the band striking up, and the procession proceeded through the principal streets to the residence of Mr. Blaine, in front of which quite a crowd was assembled watching an artist sketching for an illustrated paper. The procession arrived at the house, and the Californians were received with a clapping of hands as they passed inside. They were most cordially received by Mr. Blaine as Senator McClure presented each by name, and a conversation ensued which was broken up by Senator Hamlin coming in and being presented, remarking that they were nice boys. Blaine then went to the door, where he was received with cheers. General Connor addressed him in a short speech, and was followed by Congressman Boutelle. Mr. Blaine then spoke as follows:

Fellow-citizens, if anything could add to the pleasure of welcoming to my door and under my roof my old friends of Maine it would be, as it is to-day, to have them accompanied by loyal and true-hearted men from the Pacific coast, whom they bring to our hospitality, and whom we greet and welcome as our guests. I am very sure you must appreciate the embarrassment under which a man speaks when he is overwhelmed with demonstrations of kindness, as I am to-day. I can only say, from the depths of a profoundly thankful heart, God bless you all.

Mr. Boutelle followed briefly, and was succeeded by Senator McClure, who concluded by introducing Judge George Knight, of California, who paid a tribute to Lincoln and Hamlin. The California delegation then took leave of Mr. Blaine, after which the crowd streamed by the door, shaking hands with Mr. Blaine. At a reception to the California delegation which followed, J. Manchester Haynes, of Augusta, made the speech of welcome and ex-Governor Davis replied on behalf of the delegates from the Pacific slope. Senator McClure, of California, said that in November the electoral votes of California, Nevada and Oregon would be secured for the Republicans, besides five or six Congressmen and one United States Senator. A serenade was given to the visitors, after which speech-making was indulged in.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 10.—Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, spent Sunday in St. Paul on his way to Montana. Speaking of the issues in the Chicago Convention, Mr. Roosevelt said: "The platform is an admirable one, as strong as the party has had since the old war days. It will gain thousands of votes all over the country. Scarcely a Republican or Independent of conservative judgment but must indorse it heartily. The Democratic party must follow, in the main, our platform or give up the fight. I did not favor either Blaine or Arthur; my preference was Edmunds. Aside from his own strength of 330 odd votes that would stick to him through thick and thin, the "Plumed Knight" was the second choice of two-thirds of the remainder of the delegates. As soon as they saw that the nomination of their candidate was impossible, and Blaine's nomination probable, they flocked to him in a body. This is why no combination against Blaine was possible. Had I not been so positively for Edmunds I don't know but I would have been carried away by the contagion and found myself throwing up my hands for Blaine. Blaine is the choice of two-thirds of the rank and file of the party. I shall by no means bolt the nomination. I have no personal objection to Blaine. I think you will find there will be no fatal disaffection. I believe Blaine will be elected. He will sweep the West and Ohio, and will carry all New England. I have been called a 'reformer,' but I am a Republican. It is too early to speak of New York. No one to-day can tell how that State will vote. I do not think it is impossible for Blaine to carry it. I do not believe there will be an independent candidate. Those who will not vote the Republican ticket will stay away from the polls. As to the bolt of the New York Times, I am inclined to think that it would support either Cleveland or Dorsheimer, if nominated by the Democrats."

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., June 10.—In conversation with an intimate friend yesterday Judge David Davis expressed his approval of the Republican nominations. His friends say that he will come out squarely for Blaine and Logan and the Republican platform. There is considerable talk of Judge Davis as a candidate to fill the vacancy in the Senate which will be created should Logan be elected to the Vice-Presidency.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Various statements having been made as to the probable course of Harper's Weekly in regard to the nomination of Blaine and Logan, a representative of the house of Harper Bros. was interviewed and made the statement by authority that Harper's Weekly will oppose the Chicago nominations; that the decision to this effect was reached by the members of the house unanimously, and that the pen of Mr. George William Curtis and the pencil of Mr. Thomas Nast will be exerted in support of this cause.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Independent, which has always been a steadfast supporter of the Republican party, its nominations and principles, will announce in its issue of this week that it will not support the ticket nominated at Chicago. It says that the party is worth nothing except as it continues to represent principles and reform. When it is dead, the quiet, earnest patriots who have sustained it must bury it. The Independent prefers to believe that the party is sick rather than dead, and says a defeat may purge and reinvigorate it. The conscience of true Republicans will surely defeat its unworthy ticket; and "if the Democrats nominate an exceptional candidate, like Bayard or Cleveland, they would make the election of Blaine impossible."

The World prints the following list of anti-Blaine Independent and Republican journals: Times, New York; Union, Brooklyn; Times, Philadelphia; Herald, Boston; Republican, Springfield, Mass.; Eagle, Reading, Pa.; Truth, New York; Telegram, New York; Transcript, Boston; Times, Flushing, L. I.; Herald, Rochester, N. Y.; Post, New York; Record, Philadelphia; Spy, Worcester; Staats-Zeitung, Chicago; News, Buffalo; Advertiser, Boston; Herald, New York; Express, Buffalo; Gazette, Worcester; News, Newport, R. I.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 10.—Carl Schurz arrived in the city yesterday and was in consultation all the afternoon with Dr. Pretorius, editor of the Westliche Post, which Mr. Schurz formerly managed editorially, and of which he is still a principal stockholder and member of the Board of Directors. Mr. Schurz told a reporter last evening that he would never give his support to Blaine and Logan, the Republican ticket. Beyond this he would not talk.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Mr. Beecher addressed the weekly Baptist Conference yesterday morning and spoke at length on the development of civilization within his memory. When he finished speaking he said he would cheerfully reply to any question that might be put to him. A delegate from Weehawken rose and inquired if Mr. Beecher would support the Blaine and Logan Republican flag? "I shall stand for the old flag," Mr. Beecheor replied, "but I won't vote for Mr. Blaine."

WHEELING, W. Va., June 10.—Four weeks ago the Greenbackers and Republicans formed fusion tickets, and it was believed then that they would carry the State. Since the nomination of Blaine prominent Greenbackers have called a State Convention, to meet at Parkersburg, to nominate a straight ticket. The matter causes much speculation.

APPALLING DEVASTATION.

The Green Mountain Rivers Break Their Banks and Inflict Great Loss.

SPRINGFIELD, Vt., June 10.—This village has been visited by another disastrous flood, the second within eleven months. At noon yesterday a moderate rain fell, but an hour later a storm of terrific force broke upon the village. A storm was also in progress about five miles north, and a high wind that changed in a few minutes from south to north and then back again drove the two storms together. Rain came down as if a mighty river was falling from the heavens, and the hill north of town, that slopes west to Black River and east to a creek, sent a torrent of water toward the town. Warning was at once given, but so rapidly did the water rise that few had time to save anything, and were forced to flee for their lives. The channel of the creek soon became filled with wreckage of houses, barns and other buildings, which forced it in other directions. One stream plowed through the Springfield house, another through Hart & Dodge's livery stable, and another through Ellison Bros.' stage barn. The individual losses and damage to the highway reach at least $50,000. In some places the highways are gutted twenty-five feet deep, and some houses in the village have four feet of mud in them. Just across the Cheshire bridge a barn was blown down, killing William Parker and family, and injuring a woman named Bella Spaulding. The storm raged over three hours.

A FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

A Party of Italian Laborers Struck by an Express Train—Two Men Instantly Killed and One Mortally Wounded.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 10.—A frightful accident happened near Bellevale, Pa., on the line of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad about half-past six o'clock yesterday morning, by which two persons were instantly killed and another received fatal injuries. A party of five strolling Italians were tramping toward this city on the railroad tracks when a freight-train came along, and on stepping off to avoid it three of them were struck by the Cleveland Express, coming in an opposite direction. The express was running at a high rate of speed and the victims hurled twenty-five feet in the air. Dominic Capric, aged forty, was lodged in the crossarms of a telegraph pole, and when taken down life was extinct.

His son Joseph, aged 15, had his skull crushed and his back broken. His death is supposed to have resulted instantly. Dominic Brown had both legs broken and was injured internally. He was brought to this city and placed in the West Pennsylvania Hospital. The physicians entertain no hopes of his recovery. The other Italians escaped uninjured.

Aller Logan's Seat.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 10.—The politicians are already figuring on the election of some man to occupy the seat of General Logan in the Senate, in the event of his election as Vice-President. Among the dozen or two of names already mentioned in this connection, one has heard of Governor Oglesby, Clark Carr, Major Connolly, Senator Campbell, Speaker Collins, I. L. Morrison of Jacksonville, Jesse Spalding, C. B. Farwell and Colonel George R. Davis.

In the alms-house at Erie, Pa., Monday Jacob Pasch suddenly rushed to the highest part of the structure, jumped off, falling one hundred feet, and was instantly killed.

His Brother Tom's Vagaries and His Own Financial Difficulties Drive Him to the Desperate Act.

A Brief Sketch of His Life—His Passion for the Turf, and His Conversion to Christianity.

His Life Was a Burden.

BUFORD'S MAD ACT.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 10.—The famous Buford family, of Kentucky, has furnished another startling sensation, this time in the suicide of General Abe Buford at Danville, a town twenty miles west of here. General Buford has been an occasional attendant upon the races at that place, where the horse spirit is largely predominant. He was a guest on these occasions of his nephew, Benjamin T. Buford, a man of some means. Heretofore the General's visits have been marked by great joviality, and he was a welcome visitor on all hands. This time, however, it was noticed that he was despondent, and he appeared gloomy and distressed. This deepened perceptibly yesterday morning after he had read in a Sunday paper an article copied from a Louisville publication commenting on the voluntary return of his brother, Tom Buford, the slayer of Judge Elliott, of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, a financial and physical wreck, to the Anchorage Insane Hospital, in Kentucky. The article referred to the decadence of the Buford family, and also spoke of the General's loss of fortune.

After breakfast yesterday morning he retired to his room, whence soon came the report of a pistol. The General was found dead with a bullet through his heart. Death was instantaneous. The following letters were found, which explain the cause of the act:

B. T. Buford—DEAR SIR: Do not afflict me. I have no home to go to, and prefer death to any further struggle with life. My cross is too heavy; I can't keep it out of the dust. Send my body to my brother, J. H. Buford, Lexington, Ky.; and may God have mercy on my bewildered soul. My troubles and those of my unfortunate brother Tom have driven me mad. A. BUFORD.

Besides this letter, was the following scribbled on a bit of paper:

My financial troubles have driven me to despair. Have lost my only chance to retrieve my unfortunate brother and self, and the future is too dark for me to struggle against any further. I want my body sent to Lexington, Ky. My friends there will put it away alongside of my dear wife and boy. Peace to all the world, and may God have mercy on my troubled soul. A. BUFORD.

In accordance with his request the body was shipped this afternoon to Lexington.

Abe Buford was sixty-four years old, and was a graduate of West Point in 1841, with General W. S. Hancock and General Buell. He was brevetted Captain in the Mexican war for bravery at Buena Vista, and was commissioned Brigadier-General in the Confederate army. For many years he was a race-horse breeder, and was the owner of the great racer, Enquirer. He owned a magnificent stock-farm in Woodford County, Ky., called Basque Bonita, which was the most princely residence in the blue-grass region, and there he used to entertain annually all the prominent politicians and sporting men of the country. Five years ago his brother assassinated Judge Elliott, and Abe, who was already in financial straits, became bankrupt through assisting the assassin in his defense. The brother was acquitted on the plea of insanity and sent to the insane asylum, from which he escaped two years ago. After his failure, General Buford renounced the turf, at least its gambling phase, and joined the church, his lectures on the "Turf and the Church" attracting a great deal of attention. Two years ago he first united with the Christian or Campbellite denomination, but was afterward baptized and confirmed in the Episcopal Church, which latter he chose because he said he wanted a church with a pedigree. For years his name and colors were the first on Western race-courses, but of late he has been painfully working out a living by working for racing papers.

HORRIBLE MURDER BY TRAMPS.

A Farmer's Wife Waylaid, Brutally Assaulted, and Her Body Cut to Pieces.

DULUTH, Minn., June 10.—Just before dinner time last Saturday Mrs. Ann Enicka, the wife of a farmer who lived a few miles from Normantown, went to a neighbor for milk. She obtained it, and started for home. She failed to put in appearance at dinner when the husband came home for his meal. He became anxious and started for the neighbor's. On his way there he found a man's shirt, some cartridges, and the remains of a fire where tramps had been camping, and near them his wife's shoes and the milk pail. He soon discovered his wife had been there and started for home. He became alarmed and search was instituted. The community was aroused and search was made until two p. m. yesterday, when the body of Mrs. Enicka was found. She was the victim of the most horrible butchery ever known in this part of the country. She had been shot in the temple twice, outraged, and then put on a log, head downward, where her bowels were cut open, and her body otherwise mangled in a manner too horrible for print. The community is greatly excited, and it will go hard with the dastards if they are caught.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 10.—Early yesterday afternoon Mrs. Howard Lee, living at 1500 Carr street, tossed a six months-old baby of her neighbor, Mrs. J. T. Barrett, out of a third-story window. The shock resulted in the instant death of the child. Mrs. Lee came in to see Mrs. Barrett, and volunteered to hold the baby while the mother prepared breakfast. A horrible temptation then seized the woman to throw the child out of the window. It is supposed that she is insane.
